

History of Hope: Our Weekend in Kirtland

SATURDAY, APRIL 12TH

9:00 - 9:30: Welcome

Weekend orientation in the Kirtland Community of Christ Sanctuary

9:45 - 10:50: Session One

- Sanctuary: Holy Week and Pentecost in 1830s Community of Christ History with Seth Bryant
- Foyer: Kirtland Mills Burying Ground: walking tour with Lachlan Mackay
- Auditorium: Space available for casual conversation and refreshments

10:50 - 11:00 Session Break

11:00 - 11:50 Session Two

- Sanctuary: A Time of Transition: Kirtland Temple 1846-1890 with Christin Mackay
- Foyer: Streets of the Saints: walking tour with Barb Walden
- Auditorium: Space available for casual conversation and refreshments

12:00 - 1:30: Lunch and Church History in the Dining Room and Auditorium

Join Sally Roth for a fun game of church history trivia while you enjoy lunch

1:30 - 1:50 Prayer for Peace in the Sanctuary

1:50 - 2:00 Session Break

2:00 - 2:50: Session Three

- Sanctuary: Kirtland Women: A Continuing Story with Barb Walden
- Foyer: Kirtland Mills Burying Ground: walking tour with Lachlan Mackay
- Auditorium: Space available for casual conversation and refreshments

2:50-3:00 Session Break

3:00-3:50 Session Four

- Sanctuary: Become a People of the Temple: A Temple Centered History of Community of Christ with John-Charles Duffy
- Foyer: Streets of the Saints walking tour with Barb Walden
- Auditorium: Space available for casual conversation and refreshments

4:00-6:30 Individual Free Time and Dinner (on your own)

7:00-9:00 Sanctuary: Kirtland Past and Present: Memories Shared in "the Ohio"

Our final program of the day will focus on the continuing story and impact of the Kirtland Temple for Community of Christ today. Circle your chairs for an evening of tales with some of Community of Christ's best storytellers, and this includes you! Consider bringing a personal object that reflects or reminds you of your own Kirtland story.

SUNDAY, APRIL 13TH

10:30-12:00 Palm Sunday worship inside the Kirtland Temple lower court

Morning message from Community of Christ President-designate Stassi Cramm

Offering designated for the Community of Christ Historic Sites Foundation